

Cement Industry Overview

CCC Group has been serving the cement and lime industry for 40 years. Our services range from small maintenance projects to construction of complete plants. Process area upgrades and construction, preheater installations and rebuilds, kiln installations and shell replacements and electrostatic precipitator and baghouse installations and rebuilds are some of the services in which we excel.

> Typical Scopes of Work

- Fabrication and installation of bulk material handling systems, belt conveyors, drag conveyors, deep pan conveyors, screw conveyors, and pneumatic systems
- Silos and Storage buildings
- Loadout Systems
- Scales - Rail & Truck
- Kiln shell fabrication and installation
- Clinker Cooler installation and rebuilds
- Electrostatic precipitator installations and rebuilds
- Baghouse installations and rework
- Chutes and ductwork fabrication and installation
- Raw mill and finish mill installations and rebuilds
- Raw material stacker and reclaimers
- Complete mill installations and rebuilds
- Separator installations
- Conditioning tower fabrication and installation
- Homogenizing and blending system installation
- Tire burning system fabrication and installation
- Sacking and palletizing system installation

> 40-year resume of cement projects in the U.S. and abroad

> Expertise applied in multiple plants of the top 20 major cement producers in the U.S.

